Please note the limitations of the CASA Volunteer's ability to transport below:

Permission for transport of children should be limited to opportunities for building rapport such as park outings, lunch/dinner, and/or other activities connected with open communication and support for children.

CASA Advocates are not permitted to transport any CASA children to support service oriented tasks such as medical and therapy appointments. In addition, CASA Advocates are not permitted to transport, or supervise, scheduled visitations.

CASA Advocates are not permitted to transport parents, guardians, or other adults connected with the case for liability reasons. Please contact the CASA office with any questions or concerns related to this policy.
